Growstown Cemetery

Growstown Cemetery is located on Church Road, behind the First Baptist Church, in Brunswick, Cumberland County, Maine. This area was once known as Growstown but was later absorbed by Brunswick. The cemetery is on the south side of Church Road, is partially fenced, well cared for and is composed of 1,010 monuments and markers.

At the front edge (south side) of the cemetery is located a flagpole which has at its base a granite stone inscribed:

Dedicated to our veterans
by the grateful citizens of Brunswick

Contents

- 1) Map illustrating the general arrangement of the cemetery and showing the order of the detail maps.
- 2) Detail maps indicating the general placement of the individual monuments and markers by range.
- 3) Record of each individual stones inscription by range.
- 4) Index by family name giving the location in the cemetery.

Note

Numbering of the ranges and markers is only as an aid in locating the stone within the context of this survey and do not represent any town or cemetery association designation.

Type of marker, be it Marble, Granite or Metal, is indicated on the detail maps for the cemetery.

This record of Growstown Cemetery was produced by Donald Cheetham of Brunswick, Maine and Mark Cheetham of Richmond, Maine in 2003.

while grief and anguish break our rest
but tis God who hath bereft us
he can calm the troubled breast.

In this cold grave you silent slumber till the dead in Christ shall rise
then with all the blood washed numbers will shout salvation to the skies.

Hail thou happy, happy spirit
death no more shall make you fear grief nor sorrow, pain nor anguish never will distress you there.

Comparison Notes:

In a comparison of this survey to a transcription of Growstown Cemetery which was done by Fannie Edwards Harmon appx. 1939 it was found that in addition to the many that have been interred since that time a number of burials are listed for which no stone was found in 2003. These may be the many unmarked burial plots which are found about this cemetery, the result of the loss of the marker stone since that time, or plot ownership but no actual interment. Those for which no marker was found in this survey follow:
