Maquoit Yard Cemetery

Maquoit Yard Cemetery, also known as Maquoit Cemetery or the Baptist Burial Ground, is located on Maquoit Road, in Brunswick, Cumberland County, Maine. The cemetery is on the north side of the road and is partially enclosed by a chain link fence. Across the west end of the cemetery is a stacked stone wall while along part of the north side of the cemetery is a very rough stone wall. The cemetery is composed of 396 marker stones and monuments with the earliest dated 1798. A sign mounted on the fence facing the road reads:

Maquoit Cemetery
Site of Baptist
Meeting House
First Church
Constituted 1799.

A granite stone at the base of the flagpole reads:

Dedicated to our veterans
by the grateful citizens of Brunswick

Contents

- 1) Map illustrating the general arrangement of the cemetery and showing the order of the detail maps.
- 2) Detail maps indicating the general placement of the individual marker stones and monuments.
- 3) Record of each individual stones inscription.
- 4) Index by family name giving the location in the cemetery.

Note

Numbering of the markers is only as an aid in locating the stone within the context of this survey and do not represent any town or cemetery association designation.
Type of marker, be it Slate, Marble or Granite is indicated on the map for the cemetery.
Items enclosed by parenthesis in the marker stone record indicates information obtained from other sources as it is no longer readable on the stone.

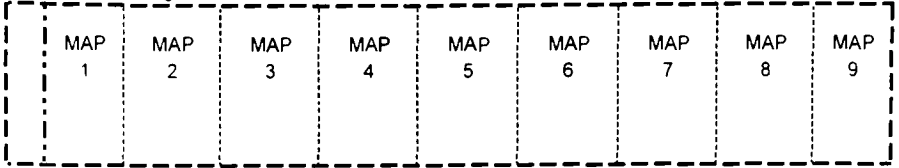

This record of Maquoit Yard Cemetery was produced by Donald Cheetham of Brunswick, Maine and Mark Cheetham of Richmond, Maine in 2004.

MARSH CEMETERY
ADAMS ROAD
BRUNSWICK, MAINE

CUMBERLAND COUNTY

Marsh Cemetery

Marsh Cemetery, also known as the New Meadows Cemetery, is located on Adams Road, in Brunswick, Cumberland County, Maine. The cemetery is on the south east side of Adams Road, with the south and west sides of the cemetery sloping down to a salt marsh. It is composed of 99 marker stones and monuments with the earliest dated 1755.

Contents

- 1) Map illustrating the general arrangement of the cemetery and showing the order of the detail maps.
- 2) Detail maps indicating the general placement of the individual marker stones and monuments.
- 3) Record of each individual stones inscription.
- 4) Index by family name giving the location in the cemetery.

Note

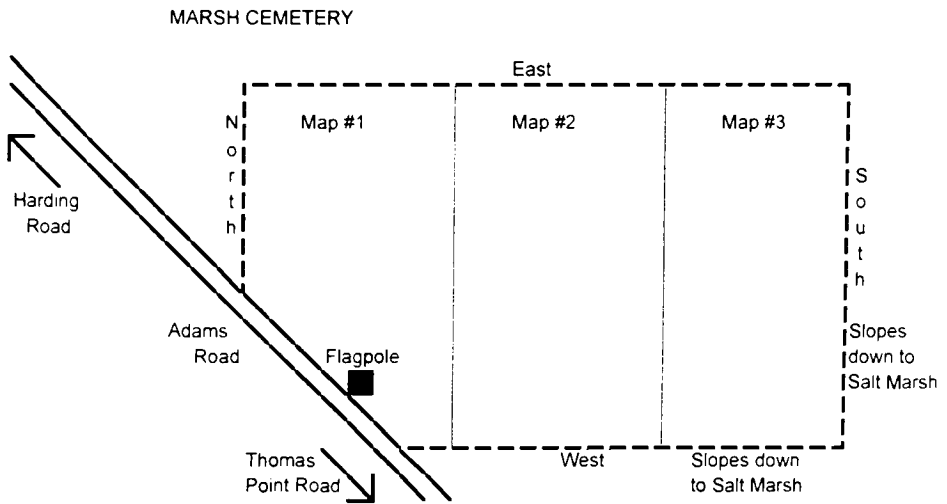

Numbering of the markers is only as an aid in locating the stone within the context of this survey and do not represent any town or cemetery association designation.

Type of marker, be it Slate or Marble is indicated on the map for the cemetery.

Parenthesis utilized in the marker stone record indicates information obtained from other sources as it is no longer readable on the stone.

This record of Marsh Cemetery was produced by Donald Cheetham of Brunswick, Maine and Mark Cheetham of Richmond, Maine in 2004.

St. PAUL'S MEMORIAL GARDEN
PLEASANT STREET
BRUNSWICK, MAINE

St. Paul's Memorial Garden

St. Paul's Memorial Garden is located on Pleasant Street, in Brunswick, Cumberland County, Maine. The cemetery is behind St. Paul's Episcopal Church and is enclosed by a metal fence. It is composed of a circular walkway having curved granite curbing along both sides of it on which the names and dates of those memorialized here are inscribed on the top surface, only the inner ring is inscribed at this time. Inside of the walkway are three tall, rough, granite stones set upright and outside are four granite blocks which serve as benches. St. Paul's Episcopal Church was founded in 1844 and the Memorial Garden was established in 1994, 150 years after the church was founded.

Contents

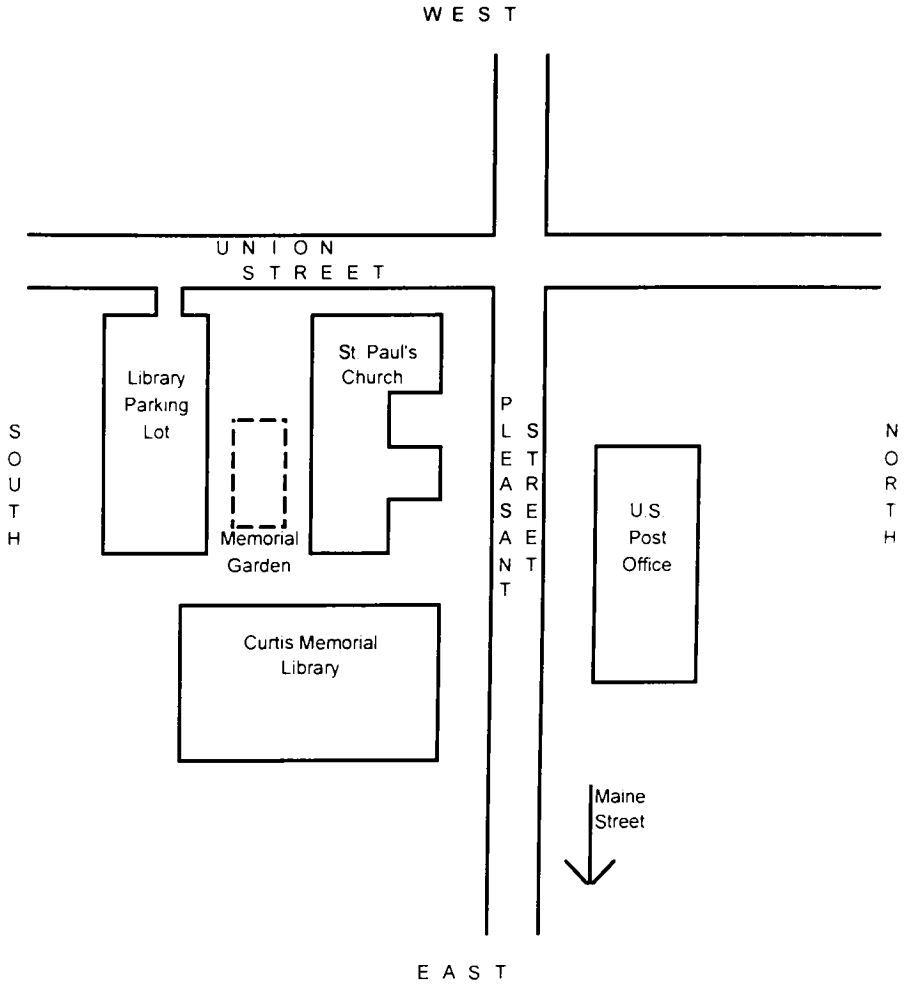

- 1) Map illustrating the general arrangement of the memorial garden.

TOWN FARM CEMETERY
INDUSTRY ROAD
BRUNSWICK, MAINE

Town Farm Cemetery

The Town Farm Cemetery, also known as the Poor Farm, Pauper's or Poores' Hill Cemetery is located off Industry Road, in Brunswick, Cumberland County, Maine. The cemetery is behind the Public Works Department next to the highway. It was established in 1831 and consists at this time of but a single stone marking the cemeteries location. It reads:

TOWN FARM
CEMETERY

Erected by Brunswick Rotary Club
1995

At this time it is unknown how many individuals were buried here or what their names may have been. Only that they are truly the towns forgotten and un-cared for. But a single name is known :

JOSEPH CHADBORN, died April 10, 1876, an infant.
