About Your Directory

TIPS ON USING YOUR DIRECTORY

To locate the information you need, refer to the index. It will give you the location of the section carrying the information you are seeking such as town officials, businesses, street, alphabetical, or numerical telephone listings.

ALPHABETICAL SECTION

Suppose you require information about Mr. John Doe. In the index you will find the page on which the Alphabetical Section begins. Turning to the Alphabetical Section, you would then look under the letter "D" and find, for example, "Doe John E. (Sarah T.) slsmn Smith's Shoe Store h 123 Middle." This would give you John Doe's full name, his wife's name, his position and place of employment, "h" indicating that he is the head of the household—as opposed to "r" signifying one who resides—and his home address. If Sarah Doe is employed, she will be listed a second time under her given name with her position and place of employment. Her home address will appear, preceded by the symbol "r". In recent years some wives have maintained that they were the heads of the households, or were co-heads with their husbands. In such cases the publishers have reversed or modified the listing format accordingly. Finally, if there are other occupants of the John Doe household who use his address as their legal address they too will be listed in the above manner, but all will appear with the symbol "r".

Business concerns are listed in the alphabetical section with the names of managers or chief executives and their titles.

STREET SECTION

Suppose you wish to locate a party named "Doe" on Middle Street in Brunswick. The index guides you to the Brunswick street listings. Looking under "M" you will find Middle Street with the houses listed sequentially. A glance down the listing will reveal, "Doe John E." Additionally you will find the telephone number for that residence, and you may find the symbol *. latter, when it appears, indicates that John Doe is owner, rather than the tenant, of that residence.

NUMERICAL TELEPHONE DIRECTORY

Suppose that you have found an item in the classified section of your local newspaper that you would like to buy. If you look up the telephone number given in the advertisement in the Numerical Telephone Directory you will be able to determine who has the item for sale. You may then want to consult the Alphabetical Section for more information before purchasing the item. The Numerical Telephone Directory section is also invaluable when you wish to identify the person to whom you wish to return telephone calls for which only a number is given.

CLASSIFIED BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Consult the Classified Business Directory when you need an item or service. You will find courteous, efficient and friendly professionals and tradespeople ready to serve your needs.

ABOUT THE INFORMATION IN YOUR DIRECTORY

The information contained in your directory is obtained from personal interviews by a complete door-to-door canvass. Each street within the coverage was physically canvassed. When it was found that no occupants of a household were absent from home, a pre-paid return post card was left. This method of obtaining information is a costly and time-consuming operation. The publishers feel that by conducting a census in this manner, we have made every attempt to make your directory as comprehensive and accurate as possible. The publishers cannot and do not guarantee the accuracy of all information furnished them nor the complete absence of omissions or errors, hence no responsibility for same can be or is assumed. The publishers do, however, welcome any inaccuracies brought to their attention, so that it may be corrected in the next edition.

HISTORY

Brunswick, Maine, is the shopping center for the East Casco Bay area. It is a community of approximately 18,000 population, and is an unusually attractive town with wide, well-planned streets and a great many old trees and houses.

The principal street, Maine Street, was laid out in 1717, when the citizens voted to construct a thoroughfare that would be 12 rods wide. This was an unusual thing to do in a time when cities were not generally planned, but grew up higgledy-piggledy. Maine Street, named after the State of Maine, retains its original width and is the widest street in Maine.

Brunswick was first settled in 1628, and originally called "Pejepscot." The town was incorporated in 1738, and named in honor of the House of Brunswick, England.

Brunswick started life as a fur-trading post, run by a Thomas Purchase. He developed a superior method of curing the salmon that he caught in the falls and built up such a good business in exporting fish along with his furs that others were attracted to the vicinity, and quite a thriving little settlement evolved.

Purchase consistently cheated the Indians, however, so that the first violence of King Philip's War in Maine was the destruction of the Purchase block house. The place was constantly harassed all during the French and Indian Wars, in spite of the building of forts and the placing of garrisons. During the wars, Brunswick was burned and re-established three times.

Two stories concerning the Indian name for the town conflict. One has it that the original name meant "crooked like a diving snake," describing a part of the Androscoggin River; another points to its being a favorite and best hunting ground of the Indians—"place of much fish, fowl, and beasts."

Conflict that existed between the white men and the Indians settled down in 1730, when the uninterrupted development of Brunswick really began.

Today Brunswick is a thriving, growing community which has maintained a colonial and traditional, quiet atmosphere for living. The major business activity of the town is commercial, but light industry is finding the community increasingly attractive. An active citizen's industrial development committee participates in all facets of industrial development. The highly adaptable labor supply, converging highways and transportation facilities, stable tax rate, and wonderful liveability of the area make it extremely suitable for new and expanding industry.

Area liveability is enhanced by an excellent school system, and a progressive community facility improvement program. The two modern hospitals have succeeded to attract an excellent medical staff to the area.

Retail trade has been the backbone of Brunswick for many years. Continued remodeling of downtown outlets and the repeated expansion of a large shopping center serve to reinforce Brunswick's position as an trading center.

Recreational and vacation facilities in the Brunswick Area are appealing to all members of the family. Summer Playhouse, Animal Park, and beaches add to the pleasure of the scenic rocky coastline with fishing villages and recreational opportunities.

Of great importance to the Town is the operation of the Brunswick Naval Air Station. The increase in population associated with the operation of this station has been of value in raising the whole level of trade and commercial facilities available to local residents. It should also be noted that the Town has in many indirect ways benefited from the influx of residents drawn from all over the country.

While Brunswick is thus able to offer an unvarnished variety of cultural, recreational and commercial attractions to its citizens, it still has the charm of a small town. In addition, its own resources and opportunities are supplemented by the easy accessibility to Portland and Boston.

But the best monument in Brunswick is no man-made thing; rather, it is the famed Bowdoin Pines, which are located on Bath Street. They are the small remnant of the dense forest that once covered the whole of Brunswick with white pines. These are the pines that were called the mast pines, the pines on which the shipbuilding industry of Maine was based, the pine which caused much of our trouble with England. This natural resource was squandered prodigally, and only a little grove remains, saved through the foresight of Bowdoin College. Some of the trees rise 70 feet before their branches begin, and many of them were standing before the first white man came to America.

The history of Bowdoin College, which is coextensive with that of the Republic, has its fu of stirring and picturesque episodes but, with perhaps one exception, is free from those dramatic crises which offer a ready means of division into "periods." Contemplating the development of the tiny seminary of learning which opened its single narrow door to students in 1802 into the vigorous and firmly established college of today, with its multifarious activity, we are impressed by the gradualness of the transformation, the continuity underlying change. One contributing factor has been the relatively long terms of the administrators; in all the years of its active history, Bowdoin has had but ten presidents. The terms of Presidents Hyde and Sills alone span sixty-seven years. It is, then, largely for reasons of convenience that we may mark off four periods: the first from 1794, the year of incorporation, to 1802, covering the founding of the College; the second from 1802, the year the College opened, to 1839, extending through the terms of Presidents McKeen, Appleton, and Allen; the third from 1839 to 1885, including the terms of Presidents Woods, Harris, and Chamberlain; the fourth from 1885 to the present time, comprising the terms of Presidents Hyde, Sills, Coles and Howell.

We Signed Our Declaration of Independence in 1853

When the Riley Insurance Agency was formed in 1853 we decided to be an independent insurance agency — to work for our customers instead of working for only one insurance company. When you visit us we'll be choosing from several different insurance companies to give you the policy best suited to your needs. That's independence!

EXPLANATIONS AND ABBREVIATIONS

In the following list the streets are arranged in alphabetical order with the intersecting streets being shown. The number of each building on the street is given in numerical order, and opposite the number is placed the name of the occupants or houseowner or tenant. In the business blocks containing offices the occupants are shown by room numbers where practicable, in apartment homes the number denotes the number of the apartment. In all streets both sides of the street are included in one list. The profession or business of individuals or firms is given only at their respective place of business; to find occupation of others refer to alphabetical list of names.

The symbol * following a householder's name indicates that we have received information during the canvass that the house is owned by some member of the family, but as the publisher cannot and does not guarantee the correctness of the information furnished, nor the complete absence of mistakes no responsibility for errors can be or is assumed, nor can the publisher furnish further information than that shown.

Telephone numbers, as supplied to us on our canvass, are shown opposite names.

This section includes some listings reading "No return." In each case the publishers tried diligently, by various means, to obtain the information from the occupants but were unsuccessful.

Power of Advertising

THE CITY DIRECTORY is the power that generates information for the buyer that he may know who deals in the product he wishes to purchase. If your business is not classified properly, and a display advertisement arranged to describe your business, how can you expect the buyer to trade with you?

ADVERTISING is the foundation upon which successful businesses are built. You must apply this to your own particular business.

ADVERTISING is the power of an idea multiplied.
